My husband purchased a "Best Vacations Ever" vacation package a year ago. Originally it was for $500 but he was convinced another $1000 would give us really special treatment, so he committed to $1000 for a stay in Costa Rica at Villas Sol. Last week we received a phone call to inform us our deal was "expiring" in a few days and we would have to pay another $499 to extend it.

The Best Vacation Ever is a book about a family trying to decide where to take a vacation to. They decide to graph and take a poll of what type of place, the condition of the place, and who and what to bring to the vacation spot. I liked how the little girl took everybody's votes and then added up the majority to decide that their best vacation ...
